Pilots Ask Window Shades to Shield Bath From Nosey Airplanes.

Culver City, Calif., July 11 (A.P.) .-Culver City, Calif., July 11 (A.F.).—
The question of whether man or machine will crack first under the strain of sustained flying, a drawn verdict in recent noted tests, appeared far from an answer today in the supreme battle between flesh and metal developed in the record endurance flight of L. W. Mendell and R. B. Reinhart.

On their tenth day in the air the pilots showed no signs of weakening and the single 220-horsepower motor of their Buhl biplane was humming long, despite what the airmen believed night be a warning sign that wear and ear was having its effect.

Two Opposite Verdicts:

The recent record flights at Fort Worth and Cleveland, which have been far surpassed by the Californians, gave opposite verdicts in the challenge between man and machine. Human endurance was found wanting in the case of the Cleveland test, Roy L. Mitchell and Byron K. Newcomb descending aft.

Charlottesville, Va., July 11.—"At ast it has been discovered that history can be made one of the most moving and interesting topics imaginable." said Paul Wilstach, author of "Jefferson and Monticella' and many other books on Virginia history, who gave his pictured talk on "Mount Vernon and the Historic Potomac" to a large audience of summer quarter students in Cabell Hall, at the University of Virginia, tomight.

toric Potomac" to a large audience of summer quarter students in Cabell Hall, at the University of Virginia, tonight.

"Book readers have got the ideastrong." he continued. "Modern novels can't interest and amuse them the way history and biography do. Have you noticed that all the best-sellers now-adays are nonfiction?

"Virginia has awakened with a boom to her historic self-consciousness. But it's nothing to the sudden consciousness of all the rest of the country to Virginia history. Do you know that 'tourists' is your second industry? That tells how interested the rest of the country is in Virginia, now that history has become such a vogue.

"Why so? Easy. The reason is that Virginia history lies at the formation of the history of the entire country. The first permanent English settlement in America was made in Virginia. Nearly every idea in the Declaration of Independence and in the Constitution was first expressed in Virginia. Virginians led in the Revolution and in the organization of the new republic. What a responsibility, but what a lark! They must have loved it!"

In his talk tonight, Wiistach sketched the most amusing points and many of the best anecdotes in his "Mount Vernon" and his. "Potomac Landings." He let the dates take care of themselves. He seemed interested in the humanities, the great figures of Virginia history, what amused them and how they amused him, and how he could make them amusing to the public.

"You can learn a lot more about a great man by observing him at home, at play, by the anecdotes he enjoyed and the stories he told, than you can by the routine of dates that some people like to hang around such men like chains," concluded the speaker.

His idea tonight seemed to be to strike off these chains and strike up the anecdotes.

CHANCE TO ASK RECOUNT

Annapolis, Md., July 11.—Praising the administration of retiring Mayor Charles W. Smith and declaring that his efforts will be devoted to a program of continued improvements along progressive lines, Mayor-elect Waiter E. Quenstedt, Republican, delivered a brief address in front of the courthouse here today after he was sworn into office.

The cath was administered in the office of Clerk of the Circuit Court Frank S. Revell by Revell's chief deputy, W. Martin Brady.

There were 20 or 30 persons about the courthouse when Mr. Quenstedt was sworn in. The audience consisted of both Democrata and Republicans, all of whom congratulated the new mayor and wished him a successful administration. First of these was retiring Mayor Smith. The friendlest feeling prevalled throughout, in contrast to the bitterness with which the recent election was contested.

With the ceremoniais over, the new mayor called upon Gov. Albert C. Ritchie, in the executive offices at the statehouse, and exchanged greetings, during which the mayor expressed the hope of promoting only the friendlest of relations between the State and city governments.

RED TROOPS READY TO MOVE ON CHINA

Tokyo, July 11 (A.P.).—Rengo dispatches from Harbin, Manchuria, today stated that as a result of the Chinese authorities taking ever complete control of the Chinese Eastern Railway today and ordering deportation of more than 300 Russian officials and employes, Soviet troops in Eastern Siberia were ready to move at a moment's notice toward the Russo-Chinese border.

Chinese were stated to have

The Chinese were stated to have taken over control as a counter move to a demand of M. Melnikov, Russian consul general at Harbin, for the release of numerous officials and employes arrested during the past day or two, by noon today.

The Chinese immediately dismissed M. Emshanov, manager, and replaced him by Fan Chin Kuang. Other high Soviet officials also were dismissed, white Russians being appointed in the place of many of those ousted.

Later dispatches from Harbin said that Chang Ching-Hui, governor of the Harbin district, handed Melnikov passports for all Soviet employes in the Harbin district demanding their withdrawal from Chinese territory within twelve hours.

This action in turn was the sequel of a threat in the rupture of relations and the intimetion that all Soviet offi-

Deploring the "present widespread dispersard of law, the ridicule of Congress and high Government and judicial officials," Gen Hines urged that citiesnship should be taught in the schoolmom, fostered in the home and practiced in daily life. He deciared that many persons mistagenly believed that the purpose of the C. M. T. C. was to provide military training, whereas the benefits in character building and self-reliance are just as important.

"You must not under any circumstances look upon this service as a vaaction." Gen. Hines warned the youths. "If you do, you will take from it just what you brought—nothing. You are here to gain an insight into the very important and serious business of being a good citizen first and, if need arise, a good soldier in defense of your country."

Fereign Protests' Effects.

It is clear from Mr. "Jorah's statement that foreign protests and threats of a tariff war against the United States may make it more difficult for the senator from Idaho to effectively oppose some of the rates in which foreign nations may be interested.

The effect of attempted international pressure would admittedly be unfortune on the standpoint of those legislaters who are opposed to the House bill, and it is conceded that supporters of the Smoot-Hawley bill will be provided with additional arguments if they can show in debate the topposition is being fostere i by foreign nitions. No senator or member of the House desires to adversely affect foreign interests if this can be avoided, but it is also emphasized that no senator or representathis can be avoided, but it is also emphasized that no senator or representative will be ready to advocate adversely affecting American interest to appease Europe or to avoid threetened reprisals against the United Cates.

REAL ESTATE TAX PAYMENT DELAYED

Alexandria Council Makes Concession on Behalf of Property Owners.

PENALTIES NOT CHANGED

The city council yesterday adopted a resolution which adjusted some points in the payment of real estate taxes which had not been clear to the tax-payers. A resolution had been adopted postponing the date, of payment of the first half of the tax from May 5 to June 15, but no provision had been made for charging the penalties which would be assessed for nonpayment.

As the tax ordinance now stands, the taxes for the first half of the year 1929 were due and payable April 15, and if not paid by May 15, this installment will be delinquent as of that date, the second installment is due October 15, and if not paid will be delinquent as of November 15.

The penalties to be assessed for nonpayment will be, on the first half, per cent if paid during the period June 16 to 30: 2 per cent if paid in August; a per cent in September; 5 per cent in October; 6 per cent per cent in September; 10 per cent if paid in hor per cent in September; 10 per cent if paid in hor per cent in September; 10 per cent if paid in December, and 1 addition to these penalties, interest at 6 per cent per annum will be added from January 1, 1930.

who is being heid in the Hartford County jail on the charge of murdering her son.

The chest, according to investigators, contained poisons as well as harmless drugs. The physician dela about a year ago in New Jersey.

The authorities so far have been unable to learn anything significant in their investigation of another possible source of the poison. They have been trying to find a connecting link between the Stone deaths and two thefts of peison from a Havre de Grace veterinarian's garage.

But to date they have uncovered nothing that would indicate the thefts had anything to do with the deaths.

The bodies of Mrs. Stone's husband, Edward, and her older son, Edgar, have been exhumed and chemists are analyzing the stomachs to see whether the husband and older son died of poison. No announcement of the chemists' report has been made yet by the authorities.

If it is found that poison killed the husband and offer son the bodies of the deaths.

If it is found that poison killed the husband and first son, the bodies of the husband's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Stone, may be exhumed.

Associate French Professor Claims $1,300 Due Him for Services.

Baltimore, Md., July 11.—A suit against the University of Maryland to recover back salary alleged to be due for his services as associate professor of French has been filed with the Circuit

French has been filed with the Circuit Court for Prince Georges County by Charles I. Sillin, it was learned today. Dismissal of the suit will be asked by J. Hubner Rice, assistant attorney general for Maryland, on the ground the claim is unjust and that the University, as a part of the State government, can not be sued.

Mr. Sillin, now an instructor in French at the Johns Hopkins University Summer School, asks $1,300 from the university as salary due him from January 1, 1927, to the end of the school year, Mr. Rice said, Mr. Sillin's pay was withheld by Dr. Raymond A. Pearson, president of the university, on the advice of the attorney general's office, according to Mr. Rice.

According to Caesar L. Aiello, of Hyattaville, who with Prew Savoy, of Washington, is representing Sillin, the professor and Dr. Pearson had unpleasantnesses which resulted in the resignation of Sillin effective at the close of the school year. Dr Pearson, however, insisted that it was effective immediately.

TARIFF JUSTICE TO ALL.

Democratic senators who are shaping the policy of their party are making much of the foreign protests against increases in the United States tariff. Apparently it is the intention of these senators to oppose revisions that will afford protection to American manufactured goods, on the ground that foreign nations will retaliate and thus destroy the $10,-000,000,000 market which Americans find abroad.

If the Democratic party wishes to remain on the losing side of the tariff question, it will vote in favor of concessions to foreign producers at the expense of American industry, agriculture, and labor.

The Republican party is charged with the responsibility of enacting the new tariff law. If that party should be so unwise as to boost the tariff unnecessarily, thus adding to the consumer's cost of living and inviting reprisals from foreign nations, the Democratic party can well afford to let its rival make that mistake.

What the Democratic party can not afford to do is to oppose tariff duties that will counteract the advantages enjoyed by foreign producers, who pay wages that would be scorned by American workingmen. A vote to admit foreign low-wage goods into ruinous competition with American high-wage goods is & vote aimed at the destruction of the American standard of living and American prosperity.

When the pleas of foreign governments are analyzed it will be found that they are asking the United States to permit low-wage goods to come into the American market in competition with home industries that pay high wages. Are Americans such fools that they will hand over to foreigners the richest market in the world, and shut up their own factories?

American exporters, particularly automobile manufacturers, are alarmed at the foreign protests against a threatened high tariff. It may be that automobiles do not need a high protective duty. If not, the duty should be reduced. But Congress should not sacrifice any American industry for the sake of boosting American automobile sales abroad.

A protective duty that equalizes the cost of production, or which places American industry on a fair competitive footing with foreign industry seeking the American market, is not only fair and just but it is indispensable if the American people are to remain employed at good wages. No nation has a right to object to equality of competitive conditions in trying to sell to Americans. Every nation has a right to protect its own producers, and all of them are doing so in one form or another. Americans are not complaining when they find themselves confronted with fair duties in entering foreign markets.

The poverty pleas put forth by some of the foreign governments are both shameful and fraudulent. What they really ask is that they be given special privileges in the American market. They ask Americans to admit goods produced by poorly paid and overworked labor in preference to American goods produced by well-paid American labor. These pleas are an insult to American intelligence, and deserve no consideration whatever.

No tariff war will develop as a result of self-respecting protective tariff legislatien by the United States. The nations that are now clamoring against imaginary hardships to flow from the new tariff have no reason to demand anything but fair and equal treatment. As President Hoover said in his message to Congress, "No discrimination against any foreign industry is involved in equalizing the difference in costs of production at home and abroad, and thus taking from foreign producers the advantages they derive from paying lower wages to labor. Indeed, such equalization is not only a measure of social justice at home but by the lift it gives to our standard of living we increase the demand for those goods from abroad that we do not ourselves produce."

"Social justice" is involved in tariffmaking. Congress is bound to enact a tariff that will do justice to all Americans. By doing justice to them it will be doing justice to all foreign countries. Any denial of necessary protection to Americans, for the sake of encouraging the export trade, or for the sake of admitting cheap-labor foreign goods, is a denial of social justice. Exporters must make their own way in the world trade. They can not be permitted to make breaches in the tariff wall, to the damage of their fellow Americans in other industries.

The point is emphasized that the new tariff law should have due regard for the foreign trade. That is a good point. An outrageous tariff, designed to shut out all foreign products, would be a deadly blow at American foreign trade. But there is no indication that such a tariff law will be enacted. The danger lies, not in the making of an effective and equitable protective tariff, but in the enactment of a weak and inequitable law that will work hardship and ruin upon some American industries for the sake of boosting foreign trade.

The Republican party should stand pat on the protective tariff principle. Let there be no wobbling, either under foreign threats or at the behest of American exporters. Every American industry, all agriculture, and all workingmen who are subject to the injurious competition of foreign underpaid industry are entitled to adequate protection. The principle of protection has made America busy and prosperous. If it will adhere to this principle it can stand against the world with its millions of workers enjoying good wages and decent standards of living. The surplus they produce can be sold abroad in spite of tariffs, because Americans, backed by the world's richest market-their own monopoly-and by energy and machine ingenuity can and do produce goods in many branches of industry more cheaply than foreigners can produce them. Take away the American monopoly of the American market, and producers here could not sell either at home or abroad unless they reduced wages to the world level.

OUTGOING AMERICANS.

The number of passports issued from the State Department in the month of May of this year was greater than the number issued in any one month since the World War. Fees collected from this source reached $387 .-150, or at the rate of $10 for each document handed to the traveler. During the six months which ended with June there were 133,685 official permissions to travel abroad granted to American citizens, exceeding the total of such permits for the corresponding period of 1928 by 3,862.

It is expected that the aggregate for the year will reach almost 200,000, as the number of requests for passports has grown steadily year by year. In 1923 123,656 were issued. In 1926 the number had mounted to 176,033 and last year to 189,308.

However, the passports issued by no means indicate the total movement of Americans across the seas. In the first place a whole family may travel on one such permission, and it frequently happens that parties of five or more leave on one document. Then again, alien residents who have not received their final papers of naturalization, are granted permits to travel outside the boundaries of the United States, and under these permits th alien may return to this country, provided he does so within a year. These permits are issued from the Department of Labor and there were 113,977 papers of this character from the office of the commissioner general of immigration during the fiscal year which ended June 30, 1923, and about an equal number during the last twelve months.

It is therefore within reason to estimate that during 1929 more than 1,000,000 residents of this country will have traveled beyond the seas, and as experts estimate that each traveler spends about $1,000 it would appear that the total thus passed across the oceans from the pockets of the Yankees will approximate $1,000,000,000.

It should be remembered in this connection that passports are not required for travel into Canada, Cuba or the British West Indies, and that during the summer thousands of American cars, averaging four passengers to a car, pass over the Peace Bridge at Buffalo into Canada every week. Other thousands cross at Niagara Falls, Detroit and over the highways of the Northwest. No official statistics are required to prove that these travelers from the arid regions of the United States to the somewhat humid districts of Canada do not bring back with them all the funds that

VOLTAIRE VS. BOSTON.

The judgment of customs authorities at Boston on the literary merits of Voltaire's 'Candide" has been reversed by the Treasury Department. The decision is not likely to be taken to heart by the Boston authorities, because they have no official standing as literary critics. On the other hand they may comfort themselves by the knowledge that they have stimulated more interest in this old French classic than a dozen first-class critics might have done by praising it.

'Candide' was published in 1759 and from that year until a few weeks ago enjoyed a high reputation among the literature of the It has always been recognized that it is not a fdiry story for children, but the literary world has failed to find anything in it which is objectionable to intelligent men and | psychiatry can give us."

women. Its brief period of official opprobrium will not injure the classic, but it may result in a reaction against that type of censorship to which it was subjected.

It would be interesting to know what part the furore of the literary world over the Boston censor's decision played in the final pronouncement of the Treasury Department. What would have happened if "Candide" had been modern? In all likelihood it would have been excluded from the United States by customs officials, and an appeal to the higher censors of the Treasury would not have had the backing of public opinion and professors of literature.

A reconsideration of the policy of the Government toward literature of other peoples would be timely. If censors at the ports of entry continue to pronounce classics obscene, only to have their decisions reversed after a vigorous expression of public opinion, our official censors will become the laughing stock of the world. The present incident has drawn caustic comment from abroad. Readers would like to know if the Government is to continue barring books because certain passages in them do not meet with the approval of customs officials.

PSYCHIATRY FOR CRIMINALS

In the opinion of Justice Joseph M. Proskauer, of the New York Supreme Court, less law and more of the sciences of psychology and psychiatry are needed in the administration of criminal justice. Our treatment of criminals, he suggests, should be changed to correspond to the teachings of these two Speaking recently before the annual New York City Conference of Social Work, he declared that the criminal is more important than the crime, and instead of punishing a criminal according to the severity of the crime which he has committed we should treat him with a view to his environment and mental background. With that sort of treatment, he asserted, young people, who form so great a proportion of first offenders, would be reclaimed to society instead of becoming hardened criminals.

"We must dispel the fallacy that the man who wants to recognize the facts of psychiatry in the practical administration of justice is a sentimentalist who wishes to coddle criminals," he said. "We hear on all sides expressions of the gravest dissatisfaction with the results of the administration of the criminal law. We are told of crime waves and of criminals going unwhipped of justice and the easy hibboleth on the lips of the unthinking is to add severity to punishment.

"We must next disabuse the public mind of the popular misconception that the object of the criminal law is to punish crime. Its real object is not to punish, but to protect society from the depredations of the criminal. It is measure of self-defense for society.

"We must remember that our goal is not vengeance; it is not punishment in and for itself; it is the protection of society with the use of vengeance and punishment only in so far as they are serviceable means to that end. "Psychiatry has bearing upon these means

In its first aspect it has to do with the task which the courts have set themselves of determining the mental responsibility of the offender before the bar of criminal jus-We have thus far fatuously divided mankind into the sane and the insane. formally announce that that man is sane who understands the nature and quality of his act and can distinguish right from wrong. And today we maintain that shibboleth in the face of the demonstrated truth that this definition has not the slightest relationship to

"The result is that our courts are cluttered up with testimony of conflicting experts; the judges and lawyers and jurors alike grope about like blindfolded men in the endeavor to place a man in a fixed category, when in point of fact in the very largest proportion of cases where the issue of insanity arises the defendant is really a psychopathic case, in a twilight zone, a fit patient for psychiatric treatment, and yet the jury is compelled to say that he is either sane or insane, when the wisdom of the medical profession would themselves be unable to deliver such a categoric judgment.

"Such a system results in injustice to the State as well as to the criminal. There are any number of cases where men who should be restrained under definite medical care have been allowed to go free because a jury did not wish to brand them as criminals, and there are just as many cases where men decay in prison who might be reclaimed as useful mem-

"Certainly it is not too much to ask that with respect, at least, to youthful offenders, and particularly to youthful first offenders, the administration of justice should begin to work hand in hand with the psychiatrist for the reclamation of valuable human material. Upon conviction they should be placed under restraint for the protection of society. duration and the character of that restraint must be determined by the careful observation of penologists and psychiatrists, subject, of course, to such review as will prevent abuse.

"There must be basic change, and if such an offender would be passed into the hands of a board authorized to confine him, to study his peculiarities, to cure him if he can be cured, so to speak, and then release him from its custody, and to retain him in its custody so long as he is not cured, we should have a system better designed for the welfare of the offender and of society alike.

"I have wondered how best we might take the first step along this path which the best thinkers of psychiatry believe that we of the law should follow. The validity of their belief. I think, we might most easily test out by securing legislation to apply these theories in the first instance to first offenders under the A fair trial would involve a separate penal institution under the direction of the best and ablest men which penology and

A "Nervous Breakdown" Frequently Follows an Acute Case of Martyrdom. By ROBERT QUILLEN=

B LESSED are those who don't expect much. They never go to sanitariums.

The victims of "nerves" are people who feel mistreated. Only in the rarest of cases does hard work alone cause a "nervou breakdown."

In most cases it is the mind that breaks, and it breaks because of brooding.

The beginning of the break is vanity. And when vanity is thwarted and denied its own way, it sits and suffers in silence—feeling sorry for itself, inwardly raging because of its helplessness, stubbornly determined never to surrender and accept the inevitable-and after a few months of morbid resentment, there is a job for the "specialist."

Man is born with an appetite for freedom. He resents restraint as naturally as he resent a blow. The best natured of infants will yell from May to October. I never heard when its arms are held.

Why, then, does resentment of restraint result in disaster? Can it be that anything so natural is harmful?

As a matter of fact, resentment is not harmful if given free rein Endeavor to thwart a normal man or restrain him and he will fight tooth and nail to win freedom and overcome the obstacles that hinder him. That is natural. And whatever the result may be, the fact that he did his best will preserve the man's self-respect and enable him to accept the inevitable without shame. It is self-imposed restraint that causes "nerves."

One who resents the scheme of things and yet curbs the natural impulse to fight against it is opposing nature and inviting trouble. When conscience or hurt feelings or a morbid delight in martyrdon prompts endurance of a state of affairs that is hateful, the usual result is a brooding self-pity that threatens sanity.

You can't go contrary to nature and avoid scars.

Nature urges you to struggle when you resent restrictions. If you refuse to struggle and force yourself to submit though your heart is Resentment, like steam, will wreck the premises if you confine it. There are people, long schooled in humility and obedience, who expect nothing and are incapable of self-pity, but those who have normal pride must fight to save their souls.

This does not mean that one should go through life kicking against the inevitable. To race against what can't be helped is childish and

But to preserve complete sanity, a man must avoid the self-imposed martyrdoms that lead to morbid brooding, and must fight for liberty and right and justice.

Accept the inevitable cheerfully, but refuse to believe it is inevitable while you have the strength to fight or a chance to run.

uld Sunday Be Made Blue? Asks C. J. P., Who Points to Philadelphia as a Horrible Example.

To the Editor of The Post-Sir: The To the Editor of The Post—Sir: The exact motive behind the agitation for enactment of Sunday observance, or blue laws, is not apparent. No one disputes the fact that humankind is entitled to one day's rest in seven, and every one is agreed that the Sabald be set apart from other days. But why it should be held de-sirable that legislation be placed on the statute books forbidding the public from enjoying innocent pastime on the seventh day mystifies most persons. Do blue law advocates believe that the enactment of legislation stopping recreation on the Sabbath will drive people into the churches?

The delegation that visited President Hoover last Wednesday to appeal for his support of legislation to close up Washington on the seventh day gave no exact reason why such legis-lation is desirable. "We believe firmlation is desirable.

ly," said the Rev. David G. Wylie, pres-ident of the Lord's Day Alliance, "that the weekly day of rest is one of God's benedictions to a weary world." The assertion will not be disputed. "The proper observance of the day," he con-tinued, "lessens crime, which has become a national disgrace." Again there can be no argument. But it does not seem that there is any connection between blue laws and "the Washington's Delightful Weather a Surprise to a Texas Visitor.

To the Editor of The Post-Sir: ouching on the protest against "hot weather propaganda" which appears over the signature of Houston R. Harper in your today's letter column, I should like to say that since coming nere on July 1, your Washington weather has been a delightful disapintment to me.

During my preparations for departure from the largest city of Texas, where I have resided for a dozen years, I was made an object of solicitude and pity by friends and relatives, who condoled with me at the thought of my anticipated sufferings from the atro clous heat which I was scheduled to endure in the National Capital.

Last week, through the Fourth, the weather was simply marvelous, and while the days since have been hot, the nights have been delightful. On my arrival I requested that a fan be placed in my room, as to me it was unthinkable to pass a restful night without one. That fan has not as yet been called into service. In Southwest Texas, we have month after month of unbroken heat similar to your Monday's weather, extending half as much complaint about the heat in all my life as I have heard since coming here. Is it possible that washingtonians are the spoilt children of

. We quite agreed with your views in and dasagreed with the A. A. A. and all others holding that view. In our opinion Washington is the easiest city that we have ever enuntered and the traffic is handled better than all the others that we have toured in and through. We spent four days this month in Washington, and found it much easier to drive in than even Richmond, Va., which is a baby in size. Moreover, in recent years we have been through a great many of the big cities of America from the Atlantic to the Pacific and quite a few from Mexico to Canada, and our vote is most emphatically with Washington.

I might add, also, that I am a loyal member of the A. A. A. and have sup-ported them even before there was a ub in North Carolina.

Let the State, War and Navy Building Alone, Says Correspondent.

To the Editor of The Post-Sir: There is a rumor that the exterior of the State, War and Navy Building is to be changed and made to conform with the Treasury Bullding. In the first place. this could hardly be successful, as it is too tall for that style. We Americans have a fatal habit of getting one idea and running it to the extreme. The ing is symmetrical, the entrance are imposing and it is a dream of beauty compared to the Interior Building (a huge tobacco factory) with its deadly monotony.

The Greek style is good, in certain places, but too much of it is chilling and tiresome. The State, War and Navy Building is French in design, and no matter what the critics say, it does not tire you. No people understand no matter what the critics say, it does not tire you. No people understand the value of variety as well as the Prench. Would Paris be the interesting and beautiful place, which it is, if nearly all of the houses were like the Madeleine, however fine it is in it

In the new plan for the Mall it seems that one style, and one only is to pre-vall—a series of aquare buildings all with columns! Could anything be more rugged_warp-proof_durable

The General Electric-the first and only refrigerator built en-tirely of steel. It is as strong as a safe. It cannot warp. Its doors and sills, faced with warp-proof Textolite, cannot sag. It keeps cold in and heat out more effectively than any cabinet that has ever been sold. Which is just another way of saying that it maintainsperfecthealth-guarding temperature with the smallest amount of current.

And the mechanism of the General Electric—how far ahead of the field that is! All enclosed in an hermetically scaled steel cas-ing—unusually quiet, self-oiling, dust-proof—with an easily acces-sible temperature control. All the mechanismis mounted on top, out of the way . . . . leaving the greatest possible room inside the cabinet for food storage.

Another advantage of the General Electric is the fact that it is portable and needs no more "installation" than an electric iron. It is merely plugged into any electric outlet. It is mounted on legs, with lots of broomroom under it. It is easy to clean because all its interior corners are rounded.

As evidence of guaranteed reliability-there are now more than 300,000 users and not one has ever spent a single dollar for repairs. See all the models, study them carefully.

What Today Means to You

"CANCER."

I P July 12 is your birthday, the best hours for you on this date are from 12 noon to 1:30 p. m., the man of the periods are from 8:30 a. m. to 10 a. m., and from 10 p. m. to 1:30 p. m. to 10 p. m. to 11:30 p. m. The danger of the periods are from 8:30 a. m. to 10 a. m., and from 3 p. m. to 5 p. m.

Planetary aspects of this date are quite favorable, and the benign effects promise to be general in character and diverse in result. Financial benefits may be safely anticipated. There will be events in family life that will afford pleasure, and there is a fair prospect of travel.

The child born July 12 will be reckless, and caution must be taught it, both in action and in speech. It will develop a great measure of determination of character, and is liable, as the years progress, to become self-opinionated. The signs indicate that it will awaken and give sincere love and loyal friendship.

Your temperament is a very peculiar cone, and quite hard to understand; in fact, it is a moot question whether you even know yourself. You have very high ideals, yet stoop to things that are petty, You love intrigue, and are rather more secretive than is either necessary or politic. Your general outlook on life is of the fatalistic variety, and you are disposed to attribute the blessings of Providence, or the evils of misfortune, to luck, This has rather a dampening effect on the fires of enthusiam for any endeavor, and often prevents you doing your utmost along the progressive lines of achievement.

Your character is full of inconsist-smeies; you are tolerant of some, infollation, the providence of the fire of the fire of the fire of enthusiam for any endeavor, and often prevents you doing your utmost along the progressive lines of achievement.

WORK'S BRIDGE

CONTRACT BRIDGE.

THERE is one feature in Contract bidding that varies so greatly from Auction bidding that it is a stumbling block in the path of the average Bridge player who is shifting his alle giance from one game to the other.

When a Contract player bids one of a suit, he announces; "I have at least four cards of this suit; I have at least four cards of this suit; I have at least two high-card tricks, and I have at least four highly probable tricks all told. These four tricks are highly probably whether the suit I name becomes the trump, or the declaration be shifted to No Trump." With this valuable positive information is coupled the negative information that as the bid has been only one, the hand does not contain six probable tricks.

In Auction, while the same positive information is conveyed by a one-bid the negative information is not there because in Auction a player might bid one of a suit with a hand which contained an assured sism.

When an Auction player raises his parther's original bid, he is not encouraging him to jump to a game bid; but in Contract he is doing just that. At a love score, when a Contract bidder starts with only one of a suit, it requires considerable strength opposite to him to make game; and it is foolish for the partner to jump unless his hand is so helpful that there is a real chance for game. In Auction, normal support and two Aces or the equivalent justifies a raise of a suit-bid of one; but at a love score in Contract a jump from one to two with only that much strength is unsound.

Let us look at it from a practical with only that much strength is unsound.

Let us look at it from a practical standpoint. When South bids one—a contract to take seven tricks—his hand contains four or five (less than, six), Why should North advance the contract to eight when the probable total in the combined hands is only six or seven. Even supposing the benefit of playing the Gummy is worth a trick, there is no chance of four-odd and much risk of loss. If the original bid was made on a minimum of four tricks, the result probably will be a two-trick set; if the original bidder has five tricks, he will be down one unless the advantage of playing the combined hands enables him to make his contract. When there is no chance for game, it is better to take a partial score with a possible extra trick, than to risk a set.

Skirts are beginning to show all the grace and variety of the dressler types of wear—volants, circular movements, panels, radiating pleats—in short a dozen ways of escaping the straight line, which has been the rule.

Blouses, too, have been steadily growing gayer and fancier, through the use of cravat silks, clever lingeric touches and a multitude of other variations.

But most startling of all is the whisper brought to us by the mounting breezes that the newest sports dresses, beach wear and the like will be extremely—not slightly, but extremely decollets. This decolletage, as on evening gowns of the current mode, will be much more pronounced in the back than in the front, sometimes going no less deep than to the waistline!

To the Stockholders and/or Holders of Voting Trust Certificates and/or Units of:

Curtiss Aeroplane & Motor Company, Inc. Curtiss-Robertson Airplane Manufacturing Company Curtiss Flying Service, Inc.

Curtiss Aeroplane Export Corporation Curtiss Airports Corporation Curtiss-Caproni Corporation

Wright Aeronautical Corporation Keystone Aircraft Corporation Moth Aircraft Corporation

New York and Suburban Air Lines, Inc.

New York Air Terminals, Inc.

The Boards of Directors of the Companies listed above, believing that a close affiliation will be beneficial to the stockholders and/or holders of voting trust certificates and/or holders of units of each Company, have approved a Plan under which the stockholders and/or holders of voting trust certificates and/or holders of units of these Companies are to be offered an opportunity to exchange their stock and/or voting trust certificates and/or units for stock of a corporation organized or to be organized under the laws of the State of Delaware and to be known as "Curtiss-Wright Corporation."

It is expected that if the Plan is declared effective, there will be many economies made possible in the operation and management of the Companies, and in addition the research work of the manufacturing Companies may be concentrated and very greatly expanded.

If the Plan is declared effective, Curtiss-Wright Corporation will have a complete line of airplanes and motors, excellent distributing agencies and dealer organizations, domestic and foreign, and the ownership of many of the country's finest airports. Substantially all of the present types of military and naval motors and planes will be continued and developed.

The following firms and corporations, all of which hold substantial interests in one or more of the above named Companies, as well as other holders of large stock interests therein, have indicated their approval of this Plan and their intention to exchange their stock and/or the stock controlled by them for shares of the new Curtiss-Wright Corporation:

HAYDEN, STONE & Co.

BANCAMERICA-BLAIR CORPORATION

JAMES C. WILLSON & Co. G. M.P. MURPHY & Co. DOMINICK & DOMINICK JACKSON & CURTIS HEMPHILL, NOYES & Co.

CRANE, PARRIS & Co.

Curtiss-Wright Corporation is to be organized under the laws of the State of Delaware. It shall have an authorized capital stock consisting of Twelve Million (12,000,000) shares of no par value, of which Two Million (2,000,000) shares will be Class A stock entitled to a non-cumulative preferential payment of not to exceed $2.00 per share annually, and Ten Million (10,000,000) shares will be Common stock.

The Class A stock and the Common stock shall have equal voting rights, one vote for each share.

Class A stock shall be callable at any time by the Corporation, at Forty ($40). Dollars per share. Class A stock may be exchanged flat at any time, share for share, for Common stock and in case of liquidation or a distribution of assets, the holder of each share of the Class A stock and the holder of each share of the Common stock shall share equally.

The Plan referred to calls for an exchange of stock of the above named Companies for stock of Curtiss-

Wright Corporation, upon the following basis:

Curtiss Aeroplane & Motor Company, Inc	A Stock One	Four and one-half Five-twelfths Five-sixths
Curtiss Flying Service, Inc	One One-half	One and three-tenths Five-twelfths Two Three and one-quarter One
Moth Aircraft Corporation Unit		One Two-fifths One

The right of exchange under the Plan belongs only to holders of common stock of Curtiss-Robertson Airplane Manufacturing Compan *If the plan is declared effective, the holders of stock of Wright Aeronautical Cryporation who become parties to the Plan, or their successors and assigns, will then be entitled upon exchanging their certificates of deposit for stock of Curtiss-Wright Corporation to an option warrant entitling each such stockholder, for a period of three (3) years from the date when the Plan is declared effective, to purchasone share of the Common stock of Curtiss-Wright Corporation at Thirty ($30.00) Dollars a share for every two (2) shares of stock of Wright Aeronautical Corporation formerly held by such stockholder.

† The unit referred to consists of one share of Class A stock and a half share of Class B stock of the Moth Aircraft Corporation offer relates to the unit as such and no rights are granted to holders of Class A or Class B stock, as such.

The stockholders and/or holders of voting trust certificates and/or units of the above named Companies who desire to avail themselves of the benefits of the Plan should deposit their stock and/or voting trust certificates and/or units, duly indorsed in blank, with the Depositary or any of the Sub-Depositaries hereinafter named on or before August 15, 1929. Upon making such deposit each Depositor will, in due course, receive certificates of deposit in accordance with the provisions of the Plan. Copies of the Plan may be obtained at the offices of the Transfer Agents of any of the Companies listed

DISCLOSE CONFUSION

Bulls Continue to Concentrate on Utility Stocks-Radio Is Depressed.

CALL FUNDS 9 PER CENT

New York, July 11 (A.P.).-The stock market again encountered rough and uneven going today, and price trends were highly confusing. The bulls once more concentrated their efforts on the utilities, lifting the Associated Press price index of 20 of this group into virgin high levels, while profit taking price index of 20 of this group into virgin high levels, while profit taking and bear pressure depressed many of the important industrials and rails. Unrelenting firmness in call money at 9 per cent, despite persistent predictions of better credit conditions, together with what proved to be unwarranted fears of a new high record total of Federal Reserve brokers' loans, provided a background for further bearish operations, and in a measure unsettled confidence. Also, the feeling persisted that corrective readjustments were still in order, after the sharp advances of recent weeks.

The Pederal Reserve brokerage loan compilation, issued after the close of the market, showed a decline of $14,000,000, a negligible reduction, but tending to bear out the theory that much of the sharp upturn in loans during the last few weeks was due to the exercise of rights, as the June tide of maturing rights had de'initely subsided during the past week. It would have taken an increase of but $24,000,000 in loans to edual the record of $5,793,000,000 established March 20.

Statements Not Encouraging.

While easier credit conditions are latest, the Federal Reserve condition atatements were not particularly en-couraging, showing that New York couraging, showing that New York member banks had not reduced their borrowings of $341,000,000 from the reserve institution, and that the reserve mystem had further depleted its holdings of acceptances and Government accurities. Also it was pointed out in banking circles that early conclusions that the announced retirement of $75.000,000 in Treasury notes would ease credit were hasty, as the Government will, withdraw funds now on deposit with the banks for this purpose.

There was practically nothing in the day's industrial news to influence the trend of the market. The renewed buying of utilities appeared to be based on the belief that the technical position of the group had been improved by the selling of the past week. The index of 20 utilities reached new high ground for the first time since June 29, when the culmination of several weeks of sharp advances was reached. Brooklyn Union Gas was sent up 14 points to a record price, and such isases as American Water Works. American Telephone. Consolidated Gas, American Power & Light, International Hydro-Electric, Columbia Gas and Philadelphia Co. rose 2 to 8 points to new peak prices.

Others at New Tops.

American Can, American Rolling Mill. Cuyamel Fruit. Granite City Steel, Remington Rand, Youngstown Sheet & Tube and Mathleson Alkali rose about 3 to 7 points to new tops, although all

Tube and Mathleson Alkali rose about

3 to 7 points to new tops, although all gains were not maintained.

Midland Steel Products preferred was a spectacular Issue, soaring about 16 points to a record price, reflecting rumors of recapitalization plans and new contracts with automobile manuitacturers, and Furity Bakeries was sent up over 13 points to a new high. A few of the rails were strong, Chesapeake & Ohio mounting about 8 points to a new top at 252, and Alleghany Corporation breaking into new high territory.
Others, however, were under pressure,
Norfolk & Western and Union Pacific selling off 4 and 5 points at one time, although railying at the close.
Radio was again depressed, dropping about 2 points to a new low for the movement at 76½. After early heaviness, however, General Electric recovered and closed firm. Case Threshing, after selling up 3 points, fell back 16
from the top, and Auburn Auto turned
a 9-point gain in the morning into a 5-point loss at the close.

Atlantic Refining, which has been steadily advancing of late, fell back 16
from the top, and Auburn Auto turned
a 9-point gain in the morning into a 5-point s. Allis Chalmers. Burroughs
Adding Machine. Columbia Graphophone. Dupont, Johns Manville, Cutter
Hammer and Snider Packing preferred lost about 3 to 8 points, the last two in realizing on their recent sharp advances. Coppers generally sagged a couple of points and motors were soft.

NEW YORK COTTON. New York, July 11 (A.P.)—The cotton market was lower today under further liquidation combined with local and Southern seiling, which appeared to be influenced by reports of continued favorable weather in the South, relatively easy Liverpool cables and a bearish view of the textile statistics. October contracts sold off from 18.46 and a bearish view of the textile statistics. October contracts sold off from 18.46 and a bearish view of the textile statistics. October contracts sold off from 18.46 and 18

FOREIGN GROUP IS FIRM

New York, July 11 (A.P.).-The strength of United States Government curities and of convertibles featured the bond market today. Turnovers in the listed Liberties and Treasury cerificates ruled small, but the price advances of about 1/4 to 1/2 a point were e best in some time and at the close the Governments stood virtually mid-way between their 1929 highs and way between their 1929 highs and lows. Their position represents a substantial recovery in the last month. The fact that the Treasury surplus of $185,000,000 is available for sinking fund operations leads to the belief that the plan to purchase $75,000,000 in 3½ per cent Treasury notes at 98 will be followed by similar offers, and that the clovernment issues will continue to enjoy a favorable position in the market.

Convertibles closed at about their best prices of the day. A recession from the new peak of 163½ made by American Telephone 4½s at noon appeared in the later trading, but the issue was able to show a net advance of 1½ at the final quotation of 161½. American I. G. Chemical 5½s, gained 13½; Atchison 4½s, ¾; Baltimore & Ond 4½s, ½; American International 5½s, 2, and International 8½s, 2, and International 4½s held within a narrow price range to close 1 point lower at 159½.

Activity of the share privilege issues was considerably less than yesterday, but some of the standard bonds met a moderately extensive demand. The sppearance of the general list, however, was mixed, especially in the rail a moderately extensive demand. The appearance of the general list, however, was mixed, especially in the rail group, which showed a fairly even distribution of fractional gains and losses. New York Central refunding 4½s were the weakest of the high-grade rails, slumping 1½ to a new 1929 low.

Several active issues came out among the industrials, most of which made a good showing. Chile Copper 58, Goodyear Tire & Rubber 58, International Cement 58 and International Paper 68 registered gains that ranged from a registered gains that ranged from a fraction to 234 points, the maximum appearing in the paper company bond, where it equaled the paper company bond, which was also strong yesterday.

The high light in the firm foreign division was the French Republic 7s, which touched the new year's high of 110, slipping back to close at 109½, where it equaled the previous 1929 maximum for a net gain of ½. Foreign issues in general showed an increased volume, but inconsequential price changes.

Fourth, Fifth and Sixth.

The Washington bats were silent in the second and third, but again became potent in the fourth. Goslin strolled and took second on Myer's single. Both runners moved up on West's infield out. Bluege was purposely passed to fill the bases. Ruel lifted a short fly to Aver's ill, but Cronin topped a roller toward third that scored Goslin. Myer also tried to score on the hit, but was retired at the plate.

The Nats tallied two more in the fifth. Marberry opened with a single, and after Judge and Rice had skied out Goslin, Myer and West singled in succession. The Washington Team probably would have scored several more runs in this frame had not Jamleson made a circus catch of Bluege's smash against the left field bleachers.

Another barrage of hits put the game in the bag in the sixth. Ruel singled but was forced by Cronin. Marberry in then spanked a single to left that sent of Cronin to third. Judge hit to Porter, who, with an easy double play in sight, fumbled the ball, Cronin scoring. Rice forced Judge, but Goslin singled to send Marberry over the plate.

With two out in the seventh, the Nats added the ninth and final tally, Ruel. Cronin and Marberry singled in succession. Luke Sewell then had a the plate when he tried to score from second.

Art Sweet, 33-year-old Chicago golf writer and older by several years than the other semifinalists, gained the next to the last round by an overwhelming a four-time deuced game on his own service. He followed by breaking cliabaugh's serve, and held the advantage thus gained until Clabaugh returned the compliment in the fifth game. The seventh and the three ensuing games went contrary to service for the string together Moe and Lehman and Sweet and Carter. With Lehman just out of college and Moe still a student, the upper bracket semifinal encounter takes on a collegiate air with Purdue battling Oregon, Moe has carried the colors of his school to fligh honors already this year, winning the Pacific Coast intercollegiate crown and going to the third round of the national intercollegiate.

Mordine Defeats Gun Royal and Click at Empire City.

RLINGTON PARK RACE TRACK.

Ill.. July 11 (A.P.).—H. T. Archibald's 5-year-old horse. Crystal Domino. easily won the Sheridan Drive Handicap. Feature event over the six furlongs distance for 3-year-olds and upward here this afternoon. Essare, from Jacques Stible, was second; Wisdom, from R. S. Clark's Stable, was third, and the top weight favorite. Misstep, from the Le Mar Stock Farm, was feurth. All five entrants started. Crystal Domino. away well, was rated along in third position the first three furlongs, and when let down rounding into the stretch quickly went into the lead, drawing out to win by three lengths. Essare, away fast, was rated along in closest pursuit of the leader, but in the stretch drive could not match strides with the winner, and finished second by eight lengths. Wisdom was taken into the lead at the stretch turn and finished third by a head. Misstep, a nonmudder, traced in fourth place throughout.

The race was worth $1,400 to the winner, $250 to the second horse, $175 to the third, and $75 to the fourth horse. Crystal Domino paid his backers $12.68 for a $2 ticket.

The early arrivals at the track found a slow track due to a heavy drizzle. This later turned to a steady downpoun, and when the bugle sounded for the first race the track was muddy. Numerous scratches narrowed the fields in all the events.

Out at Arlington, where the going will be a bit slow, the happy chatter is old DEVON. This fellow has been to be finally placed where he can cop. If the going turns muddy, so much the better. Greely also has REVOLVER hamed in the closing dash. However, this big mutt has turned sulker, hence, a very unreliable betting proposition. Personally, I believe the horse that takes the measure of ARMEE NAVEE and TOM BYRNE will get all the dough. ESKIMO, which is in rare form, is taken to repeat right back. As a matter of fact, that last winning effort was quite a bit better than cold dope would indicate. ULUNIU and BEN MAR-SHALL are right bang up. Lamp their efforts at Fairmount Park.

Capital - Owned Long Shot Triumphs at Kenilworth.

K ENILWORTH RACE TRACK, Canada, July 11 (A.E.)—A scattered few of turf's fandom are jubilant bonight because of the victory today of Mrs. B. E. Chapman's Caigary Kay.

And they have reason to be hilarious, for the three-year-old Chapman gelding, running the second race of his career, today hung up a new season's mutuel price record when he paid $374.10 for a $2 win ticket in the Windsor Ferry purse—a seven-furious aprint for 3-year-olds. A fortunate few that played him to run second received $199.50 for each $2 win toket in the Windsor Ferry purse—a seven-furious aprint for 3-year-olds. A fortunate few that played him to run second received $199.50 for each $2 invested.

While a high mark for this year, the price fails to anywhere near equal the hanckers of Wishing Ring for a $2 win ticket at Latonis June 17, 1912.

Caigary Kay, owned by Mrs. Chapman, of Washington, D. C. today made his second start of his career. A 3-year-old gelding, he started at Laurel in October last year and finished last.

Plans for Six-Team Play-Off Made at Meeting.

Clubs Must Stick to Original Roster in Annual Series.

HILE teams in six leagues are waging torrid battles for supremery in the various weeklay leagues, plans for the annual playmare are rapidly taking form, according to E. H. Goelz, president of the Washington City Amateur Association, who has relected to that office at a recent secting.

meeting.

This year's playoff promises to outrival all others of the past if the present interest in the movement means anything, and from all indications the financial part of it will thrive also.

The series will open on Monday,
August 19, this season and the games as heretofore, will be played on the Union Station Terminal "Y" diamond, leginning at 4:13 octock. There will be but two unspires instead of ane three that officiated the games last pear, the change being to set aside enough funds from the collections to purchase better trophies and to put on an elaborate banquet for the winning and runner-up teams after the playoff is over.

Teams Not Allowed to Draw From Leagues.

About the same rules will govern the games as last year, with one stressed, that being the rule about teams not being allowed to draft players from other teams in the league. The teams were given this privilege last year but the officials have decided this season to have the teams play through the series with the players which won their league championships.

Teams will be entered from the Govstrament League, the Industrial, Departmental, Georgetown Church, Term mai Morning and Terminal Eyening Leagues. All of these circuits are earrying on heated fights at present, with no team in any of the leagues
"in" as yet.

A feature of the series will be the presentation by Herbert Hoover, President of the United States, of autographed haseballs to outstanding players of the games. F. S. Barnard, president of the American League, will be present also if he can make arrangements to come here.

As Boston Beats Tigers
Detroit, July 11 (A.P.).—With a triple play and an unassisted double play to keep the game interesting and 23 runs and 3 strors to make it amusing, the Boston Red Sox swamped the Tigers today under a 15-to-8 score.

The Sox scored ten times in the sixth inning on eight hits and three passes. Marriy McManus saved the Tigers from greater disgrace in the final score by hitting safely five times.
Two of his blows were his third and fourth home runs of the week.

The Tigers executed the triple play in the seventh inning. Bayne tripled and Marlesky walked. Scarritt then lined to Billings and both base runners were caught by the play, Billings to Alexander to McManus. Alexander staged the unassisted double killing

Answered by

MIRIAM BURNS,
Former Women's Western Champion.

To me, confidence is the keynote of successful putting. Think the ball in the hole. Use a short, firm back swing, with the arms stiff. Let the club head start through straight for the hole. Another important factor in developing successful putting is to get a putter that suite you. It is sest to have, a professional help you in making your base on balls. Offers in the last half dash.

Chattanooga ... 101 100 100 K. H. E. Atlanta Singleton and Brock; Breanan, Raveh and Lopes. Half Winner.

ARTINIBURG. W. Va., July 11.
The second half of the 1929
Blue Ridge League campaign got under way this week with all air clubs showing a determination to fisish at the top and with most of them presenting some new faces in their line-ups.

Minkey Kelliher's Hagerstown Hubs, winners of first-half jurels, no doubt will face more serious opposition from now until the end of the season than they did from May 8, opening day, until period No. 1 ended last Saturday.
The reason for this assumption is that Kelliher started the season with a team of veterans, practically the same ones who are on his team today, and woa eleven out of the first twelve games.
While the Hubs were jumping away from the other clubs the latter were experimenting with untried youngsters. Once they secured anything like permanent line-ups, they began to cut down the Hubs' lead, with the result that the Kellherites won out by the narrow margin of one game.

Clubs Have Tried Out

All of Their Players.

The Chambersburg, Prederick, Hanover, Martinsburg and Waynesbow Clubs are not starting the second half like they did the first. The players they held over are satisfactory to them and the new ones they have secured are known quantities.

Like the first half, the second one calls for 60 games, and will come to an end on September 7, the Saturday after Labor Day. In case some club other than Hagerstown wins the pennant, a post-season series will be played. The winner of this series in all probability will meet the champions of the Middle Atlantic League,

"The first job was 'ust gold robbery from a prospector—he was right and I was tight, and I don't really know the rights of it even now, but the police swore my life away—they're not so honest as they are in England," he added hastily. Mary Dane was silent for a little while, and then asked:

"What is the great mystery? What do you mean when you say that I am three people—Miss Devilliers and myself and somebody else? Who is the somebody else? Have they been committing terrible crimes, and did you really come down that night to Brighton to arrest me?"

"What an absurd idea," he began.

"Don't prevaricate! I could see, the moment you came up to me, in the ballroom, that there was something very, very wrong. I thought you'd come especially on my behalf—to catch me out—that was the sensation I had. And you did, too!"

"Have you a sister?" he asked, and she nodded.

"Aged 12, and not a bit like me. Bhe's rather dark. She's an awfully dever child, but not clever enough to impersonate me. Have I at win? No. The truth is, Mr. Staines, I must be a very commonplace type."

He could protest against this in the tritest possible way, but she changed to make a joke about his own troubles, don't it?"

The truth is, Mr. Staines, I must be a very commonplace type."

He could protest against this in the tritest possible way, but she changed the topic.

She told him that any letters addressed to the little hotel where she stayed would always find her. That she should suggest his writing at all was ridiculously pleasing to him. The pleasure was somewhat modified at parting:

"In case you find a fourth person like me, and you would like to know where I am," she mocked him.

Dick went back to the cafe where he had arranged to meet the man from Africa and found him sitting at a small corner table. Even among the Bohemian assembly he was an unusual figure, in his gray, soft shirt, open at the neck, his battered Stetson hat on the back of his narrow head, and the long, brown, lean face.

There were people in the restaurant who knew Dick Staines and who turned their backs on him quickly when he made his appearance; for this was a favorite rendezvous of the swell mob. the "kite" men, the confidence artists, and that queer little word of fashionably dressed young men who lie in wait for guillible strangers.

Of one thing Dick was certain as he walked home: it was that this man really had been genuinely deceived when he addressed Mary Dane. Purpose of Issue This additional issue of bonds will be used in connection with the acquisition by the Company of additional subsidiaries serving approximately 27,700 customers, in 62 communities having a combined estimated population in excess of 300,000, located in 9 states.

Security These First Lien Gold Bonds of the Company will be secured, in the opinion of counsel, by deposit and pledge with the Trustee named in the Trust Indenture under which the bonds are issued, of all outstanding bonds and stocks of the operating subsidiaries including the subsidiaries to be acquired, excepting directors' qualifying shares and subsidiary bonds, preferred stocks and certain minority common stock interests for the acquisition of which either cash will be deposited or provision is made in the Trust Indenture for the issue of additional bonds thereunder. The Trust Indenture provides that additional securities of any subsidiary, whose stock is pledged, shall forthwith be deposited with the Trustee, excepting as to purchase money obligations and current indebtedness.

The properties of Federal Public Service Corporation and subsidiary companies have been appraised by independent engineers, and from these appraisals, after giving effect to subsequent additions and retirements, the sound value of the properties at May 31, 1929, after deducting depreciation and outstanding prior securities, is fixed at an amount substantially in excess of the present outstanding First Lien Cold Bonds, including this additional issue. The First Lien Gold Bonds represent less than 60% of the total of such valuations of Particular Local Interest.

Provision is made in the Trust Indenture for its modification by the Company and the Trustee, with the prior approval of the holders of three-fifths in amount of all bonds then outstanding thereunder.

> The Tabloid Magazine of The Washington Post contains the work of some of America's foremost writers on subjects of universal appeal, but its chief accent is on interesting, newsy, articles of human interest bearing a direct relation to the affairs and people of Washington and its surrounding communities. Stories by Post staff writers present unusual angles of view—they are well written, informative and equally interesting to every member of the

This section of The Sunday Post also contains "the Junior Post," comprised of four pages for youthful readers. Here they may see their own stories, poetry or drawings in print and also the work of other boys and girls . . . A Review of Books by Elisabeth E. Poe and "An Art Lover's Ramblings in London" offer authoritative comment concerning their individual fields. A series of "Best Short Stories of 1928" is now appearing in this magazine. "Cities of Fear" was selected for this list by the editor of Everybody's Magazine and will appear this coming Sunday.

Beauty Spots of the Old Dominion

A full page of pictures taken by Hugh Miller, Post photographer, reveals the delightful Virginia countryside and can be seen only in the Rotogravure Section of The Sunday Post . . A picture that will prove well worth framing is a night iew of Washington's Fourth of July fireworks display. Other pages provide diversified and interesting views of places and persons from the world over and there is full page of humorous art.

Virginia Farmers Profit By Ammonium Sulphate

Special to The Washington Post.

Cumberland, Md., July 11.—Farm demonstrations in top dressing wheat with sulphate of ammonia in Oldtown and Orleans districts have been visited by F. W. Oldenburg, extension agrommist of the University of Maryland in each demonstration one-fourth acreptots were top dressed with sulphate of ammonis, 100 pounds per acre, early in the spring. Treated plots showed larger, better filled heads, better tillering and longer straw. Indications are that yields were increased from seven to involve the bushels per acre at an average cost of around $3 per acre, making a met profit of $3 to $9 per acre as result of the practice. Samples were taken to be cured and yields determined. cial to The Washington Post.

Harrisonburg, Va., July 11.-Blazing the trail for the 300 New York fruit growers who are to tour the Shenandoah Valley orchard region, August C Oskamp, of Cornell Unis. versity, and R. C. Coombs, of Rochester, N. Y., representing the New York Horticultural Society tour committee, spent vesterday here completing de-spent yesterday here completing details for the trip.

The Empire State party, traveling in from 75 to 100 automobiles, is expected to be the largest ever visiting the valley on an agricultural mission and comes at the invitation of Gov. Harry Phood Syrd of Virginia, himself one of the largest apple growers in the East.

After spending the night of August 5 at Martinsburg, W. Va., the New Yorkers will begin their inspection of Shenandeah Valley orchards. The following night will be spent at Winchester, the fruit center of the valley. The night of August 5 will be spent in Harrisonburg, the apple growers devoting that day to visits to orchards in Shenandeah County and the Timberville section of Rockingham County.

day to visits to orchards in shemindoah County and the Timberville section of Rockingham County.

The New Yorkers will spend the night of August 9 in Charlottesville and after inspecting a few orchards in Piedmont Virginia will begin their homeward journey. The trip from Harrisonburg to Charlottesville will be by way of Staunton, where the party probably will stop for lunch.

Mr. Oskamp said here yesterday that the New York orchardists are coming to the Shenandoah Valley to study the methods which fruit growers have used here to such an advantage that Virginia now threatens to outrank, the Empire State as the leading applesproducing State in the East Mr. Oskamp added that the orchardists of his State have been resting too much upon their laurels and need "pepping up" as to modern methods of culture and marketing which prevail in the Shenandoah Valley.

COURT SHOWS LENIENCY LABOR CONDITIONS TOLD

pecial to The Washtington Post. Petersburg, Va., July 11.-At a con attorney for the Commonwealth and attorney for the Commonwealth and counsel for Mrs. Alice Winner, charged with performing an illegal operation on Mrs. Elmore L. Wells, in February last, and who died a day or two later, it was agreed that on Mrs. Winner pleading guilty to the charge of involuntary manslaughter that she would be tried for that offense after the courtroom, by order of the court, had been cleared of all spectators except court officials, members of the bar, police officers and newspaper men.

by order of the court, had been cleared of all spectators except court officials, members of the bar, police officers and newspaper men.

Mrs. Winner was arraigned and on pleading guilty to the charge of involuntary manslaughter she was sentenced by Judge E. P. Cox to one year in the penitentiary. Her sentence was suspended as of September 1, when she will have served seven months of the twelve, as she had been in jail since February 14 last.

The sentence of Judge Cox provides that Mrs. Winner, after being liberated from jail, is to leave Petersburg and is not to return here except by a written order from the judge of the court.

As Mrs. Winner had such a short time to serve in prison before she will be liberated, Judge Cox allowed her to serve it in jail and therefore she will not go to the penitentiary. Mrs. Winner, who gets time off for good behavior, was tried at the April term of the hustings court with Judge Cox presiding when the jury failed to agree on a verdict, nine being for conviction and three for acquittal. Since she has been in jail Mrs. Winner's husband and mother have died.

The case of Mrs. Winner having been disposed of, the court took up that against Elmore L. Wells, husband of the dead woman, charged, with being an accessory to the operation of which Mrs. Winner was accused. He pleaded guilty to involuntary manslaughter and the court gave him twelve months in jail and suspended six months of the sentence. He is allowed two months for good behavior. The father of Mrs. Elmore L. Wells addressed a communication to the court requesting that it be lenient with Wells, and Common-weslth's attorney also requisted leniency, as Wells had turned State's evidence. The penalty under the laws of Virginia for involuntary manslaughter is from one to five years in the penitentiary.

For almost two decades Dr. Wallin has directed psychoeducational clinics in Pennsylvania, Missouri and Ohio and has offered courses of instruction during the regular school year and the summer sessions in about ten universities for special class teachers, clinical and abnormal psychologists and mental hygiene and social service workers. For three years he served under Woodrow Wilson at Princeton.

Last year Dr. Wallin conducted a mental hygiene survey of the schools of Ohio and a survey of provisions for mentally and physically handicapped children in Baltimore. Both of thess surveys are ready for publication. The recent assembly of Maryland authorized Baltimore to issue bonds in the amount of $1.500,000 for the construction of a large central school for physically and mentally handicapped children. At it is the intention to make this school the finest of its kind in the world.

Dr. Wallin has written almost 200 scientific articles, monographs and books. The latter include Optical Influence of the Subnormality, Spelling Efficiency, Experimental Studies of Mental Defectives, the Education of Handicapped Children and Clinical and Abnormal Psychology.

Dr. Wallin is married to a Virginia girl, Frances Tinsley, of Culpeper County, who at one time was a student in Rawlings Institute, now St. Anne's School, in Charlottesville. Mrs. Wallin has returned to Columbus, Ohio, to vacate the family apartment.

Culpeper, Va., July 11.—State forces, under J. C. Albright, district engineer of the department of highways, today began surfacing the road from the Culpeper County line to Madison Court House. Nineteen thousand dollars has been allocated for this work.

Completion of this road will put the town of Madison on an all-weather direct route to Washington, and will leave only a few miles of unsurfaced road between the White House and the presidential fishing camp in the Shenandoah National Park.

The present road surface is to be smoothed, and a bituminous mat 20-feet wide will be built up making the equivalent of a hard surface road. The work is to be pushed to an early completion.

To partially offset the poor yield of wheat the Shenandoah Valley has a heavy crop of hay and excellent prospects for corn. Luray, Va., July 11.—Instead of yields averaging anywhere from 18 to 20 bushels per acre, as was expected from the growth of straw, results from the 1929 threshing season are proving disappointing to Page County farmers. From some of the best wheat-growing sections of the county an average of 8 and 12 bushels per acre is reported. The sudden and unexpected slump in the yield can not be accounted for. On account of the heavy growth of straw more binder twine, has been required in tying the 1929 etep than ever before known. Smut has seriously affected the crop in Markaville District, which rises from the threshers in cloud-like volumes.
